Hi, Phil,

So, given our discussion last week, what is supposed to happen upon our receipt of this e-mail from Dan?

Hi Heather,

Here's the review draft of the fisheries assessment. Most of it is in pretty good shape, especially the meat of the document that discusses abundance of Bristol Bay and Kvichak/Nushagak salmon stocks in the context of the North Pacific. We're still tinkering with some of the sections (and usually noted this), but feel free to provide comments on any and all. We'll continue to polish the remaining sections over the next couple weeks.

Thanks and have a good weekend.

Dan
